

conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

This ordinance shall be in full force and take effect after its passage and approval.

1915.
(Seal)
Attest:

Trustees.

W. C. B. LEWIS,
Town Clerk.

ORDINANCE NO. 2.

Be It Ordained by the Trustees of the Incorporated Town of Red Bird, Oklahoma:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person, or agent of any property within the incorporated limits of the town of Red Bird, to maintain, or to permit to become in an unsanitary condition, any privy, toilet, or other building.

Sec. 2. That it shall be unlawful for any person to permit to accumulate any garbage, refuse, dead animal, or other obnoxious substances, dangerous to the public health and that would tend to create disease of any character, within the incorporated limits of the town of Red Bird.

Sec. 3. That all bodies of dead animals and other refuse matters shall be removed by those responsible therefor, either by burning the same outside the limits of said town, or by carrying the same away within twenty-four hours thereafter, and a failure so to do shall constitute a public nuisance.

Sec. 4. That the contents of all privies shall be removed by the scavenger in odorless airtight tanks, and said tanks shall frequently be inspected by some one authorized by the Trustees to insure the public health.

Sec. 5. That all privies within the incorporated town of Red Bird shall be cleaned at least once each month, and oftener if occasion should at any time require, provided, however, that all privies used in connection with hotels and restaurants, and other public buildings, shall be cleaned every two weeks.

Sec. 6. That a charge of 20 cents shall be paid by the owners of each privy for cleaning same, and all privies shall be provided with a slide being placed underneath each seat in the privy, and said slide shall be placed so as to be readily accessible.

Sec. 7. It shall be unlawful for any person to maintain any cesspool in, upon or about his premises, except as otherwise provided herein, or to throw, or cause to be thrown upon any vacant lot, upon his own premises, or in the public streets of said town, any slop, waste paper, garbage, or refuse of any kind.

Sec. 8. It shall be unlawful for any person to set fire to any dead grass, or stubble, within the incorporated limits of said town, unless same be personally under the supervision of some competent adult person, and in no event shall such fire be permitted after dark, or be put out while a high wind is blowing so as to endanger buildings within said town.

Sec. 9. Unless otherwise provided by the Trustees of said town it shall be the duty of the town marshal to see that this ordinance is strictly enforced.

Any persons, or persons, violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum not less than $5.00, or sentenced to not less than ten days in jail, or both, in the discretion of the court.

All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

This ordinance shall take effect after its passage and approval.

Passed and approved this ____ day of September, 1915.

(Seal)
Attest:

Trustees.

W. C. B. LEWIS,
Town Clerk.

ORDINANCE NO. 3.

Be It Ordained by the Trustees of the Incorporated Town of Red Bird, Oklahoma:

Section 1. That the Board of Trustees of said town shall meet in regular session at least once each month, beginning with the first Monday night following the passage and approval of this ordinance, and at such time thereafter as shall be provided for at each session thereof; provided, that it may meet in extra-ordinary session whenever circumstances may require, each member thereof being notified by the President, or chairman of said Board of Trustees.

Sec. 2. The town clerk shall meet with the Board of Trustees and shall be the secretary thereof, and it shall be his duty to record the proceedings of each meeting as they occur.

All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

This ordinance shall take effect and be in force after its passage and approval.

1915.

Passed and approved this 20th day of September, 1915.

(Seal) Trustees.

W. C. B. LEWIS,
Town Clerk.

ORDINANCE NO. 4.

Be It Ordained by the Trustees of the Incorporated Town of Red Bird, Oklahoma:

Section 1. That the Trustees shall appoint such committees from its members as occasion may require.

Sec. 2. All business matters shall be referred to the proper committee with direction to report to the Board of Trustees not later than its next meeting.

Sec. 3. All ordinances shall be recorded in a book kept by the town clerk, which shall constitute a permanent record of said town.

Sec. 4. No bills shall be allowed against said town until the same have been submitted in writing, verified by the affidavit of the claimant, filed with the town clerk and regularly allowed at a regular session of the Board of Trustees.

Sec. 5. Any member of the Board of Trustees failing, without reasonable excuse, to attend three successive meetings of the Board shall thereby forfeit his office, unless otherwise provided by the laws of the State of Oklahoma, in such case provided.

Sec. 6. The town marshal shall be street commissioner, unless otherwise provided by the Board of Trustees at a regular meeting, and shall be allowed $1.00 per day for work.

Sec. 7. All committees shall submit their reports to the Board in writing.

All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

This ordinance shall take effect and be in force after its passage and approval.

Passed and approved this ____ day of September, 1915.

(Seal)
Attest:

W. C. B. LEWIS,
Town Clerk.

ORDINANCE NO. 5.

Be It Ordained by the Trustees of the Incorporated Town of Red Bird, Oklahoma:

That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation, to do or perform any of the acts herein-after enumerated within the incorporated limits of the town of Red Bird, viz:

Section 1. To obstruct the streets, alleys or sidewalks with any boxes, barrels or anything, except when receiving or forwarding goods, wares and merchandise, and then only for a reasonable time.

Sec. 2. For any person to fire or discharge any cannon, fowling piece, pistol, or any other firearms of any description, or fire or explode any squibs, crackers, or other thing containing powder or other combustible or explosive substance, without permission from the Trustees, which permission is subject to revocation at any time; Provided, it shall not be a violation of this ordinance to sound an alarm of fire by the discharge of firearms.

Sec. 3. For any person to leave any horse, or horses, mules, or any other animal attached to any vehicle, in the streets, alleys, or other public places, without securely fastening said animals, or by leaving some competent person in charge of same.

Sec. 4. To leave any open trap door, ditch, pit or vault in any street, highway, sidewalk, or other place of public travel, or to suffer same to be done, without placing thereat a red light before the close of day to warn passengers of every degree of the apparent danger, which said danger signal shall not be removed therefrom sooner than the rising of the sun of the day following.

Sec. 5. To ride or drive on any sidewalk, or to ride or drive through the streets and alleys in a reckless or wanton manner such as to endanger human life and property.

Sec. 6. To leave standing any wall or flue, chimney, or building which shall be dangerous by fire, to passersby, or which shall become a public nuisance after twelve hours' notice to remove the same.

Sec. 7. To permit any dangerous or mischievous animal to run at large.

Sec. 8. To be found prowling around or about the property of another without his consent, or reasonable excuse therefor.

Sec. 9. To enter the house, building, or premises of another for any unlawful purpose.

Sec. 10. To be guilty of the crime of petit larceny as defined by the statutes of the State of Oklahoma.

Sec. 11. To jump off or on, cling to or hang on any railway car or engine while the same is in motion, except this provision shall not apply to passengers, officials or other employees of the railroad company.

Sec. 12. For any engineer, fireman, conductor, or other trainman in charge of the operation of any railway train, to allow said train to block the streets for a period exceeding fifteen minutes.

Sec. 13. The marshal shall have power to abate any nuisance, or to remove the cause which immediately threatens fire to any building.

Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $5.00 nor more than $25.00, or imprisoned in the city jail for a period not to exceed thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

This ordinance shall take effect and be in force after its passage and approval.

(Seal)
Attest:

Trustees.

ORDINANCE NO. 6.

Be It Ordained by the Trustees of the Incorporated Town of Red Bird, Oklahoma:

That it shall be unlawful for any person to do, or perform any of the following acts within the incorporated limits of said town, viz:

Section 1. To set up, keep, maintain, exhibit, or play at game known as faro, monte, lottery, dice, shuffle board, or any other game prohibited by the laws of the State of Oklahoma.

Sec. 2. To maintain any business, or practice of whatever degree by which money is wagered in the nature of gambling as defined by the laws of the State of Oklahoma.

Sec. 3. For each day any gambling game shall be carried on shall be and constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 4. To have or keep any tables or other paraphernalia for gambling purposes.

Any person found guilty of a violation of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum not more than $25.00, or sentenced to imprisonment in the city jail for not less than ten days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

This ordinance shall take effect and be in force after its passage and approval.

(Seal)
Attest:

Trustees.

W. C. B. LEWIS,
Town Clerk.

ORDINANCE NO. 7.

Be It Ordained by the Trustees of the Incorporated Town of Red Bird, Oklahoma:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person within the incorporated town of Red Bird, to maintain, keep, or patronize any bawdy house, assignation house, house of ill fame, brothel shop, or other place where immoral practices may be carried on.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any female to engage in any lewd conduct with the opposite sex within the incorporated limits of said town, or to in anywise induce, or encourage any male to frequent any place, public, or private, for immoral purposes.

Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful for any man, or boy over the age of fourteen years, and not a relative, to be found in the company of any woman, or other female of bad repute, upon the streets, or in any house, public, or private, within the incorporated limits of said town, provided, however, that this section shall not apply to officials, lawyers and doctors who may be called upon to discharge some legal obligation towards such persons.

Sec. 4. It shall be unlawful for any person within the incorporated limits of the town of Red Bird to appear in public in a state of nudity, or in an indecent or lewd dress, or make any indecent exposure of his or her person, or be guilty of any lewd or indecent act or behavior, or exhibit or sell any indecent or lewd book, picture or other thing, or exhibit or perform any indecent or immoral or lewd play or other representation, or put upon any street, alley, or other public place, or leave in any yard, or upon any premises, any indecent notice or advertisement.

Sec. 5. In addition to other places commonly known as public places, all vacant lots and blocks within the incorporated town of Red Bird are hereby declared public places within the meaning of this ordinance.

Sec. 6. It shall be unlawful for any person within the incorporated limits of the town of Red Bird, to wear or carry any pistol, dirk, butcher knife, bowie knife, sword, spear in a cane, brass or metal knucks, razor, slung shot, sand bag, or pocket knife with a blade to exceed three inches in length, or with a spring handle.

Sec. 7. It shall be unlawful for any person within the limits of the town of Red Bird to maintain any place where intoxicating liquors of any kind may be sold, or given away, contrary to the laws of Oklahoma, or to be and appear in an intoxicated condition upon any street, or in any public place whatsoever.

Sec. 8. It shall be unlawful for any person within the limits of the town of Red Bird to maintain any house or place where divers persons may resort and there make loud and boisterous noises such as are calculated to disturb the quietness of the people of said town, or any part of them, or to employ any device, noise or other performance tending to the collection of persons on the streets, or other public places to the obstruction of same, or to exhibit any tricks of legerdemain, or other devices of like kind, or perform with bells, organs or other instruments upon any of the streets of said town; provided, this section shall not affect exhibitions, performances, or the sale of any articles permitted upon payment of the license fee required by other ordinances of this town.

Sec. 9. It shall be unlawful for any person within the incorporated limits of the town of Red Bird to willfully give or make a false alarm of fire, or to resist an officer in the lawful discharge of his duty, or to in anywise interfere with such officer while acting in the discharge of his duty, or to escape from arrest or to aid another to escape therefrom.

Sec. 10. Any person owning or keeping any female dog over the age of one year, or any male dog over the age of one year, within the corporate limits of the town of Red Bird shall pay thereon the sum of $1.00 for every female dog and 50 cents for every male dog each year as a license fee thereon. Provided, however, that any owner of a female dog who allows same to run at large

Sec. 11. All fines collected for the violation of any ordinances of the town of Red Bird shall go into the general fund of said town.

Sec. 12. All business houses shall pay an occupation tax to be fixed by the Trustees of the town of Red Bird at any regular meeting of said Trustees and notice thereof shall be given ten days to each person, or firm, or corporation liable to pay said tax.

Sec. 13. Any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not to exceed $25.00, or sentenced to not more than thirty days in jail, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 14. All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

This ordinance shall be in full force and take effect from and after its passage and approval.

1915.
(Seal)
Attest:

W. C. B. LEWIS,
Town Clerk.

ORDINANCE NO. 8.

Be It Ordained by the Trustees of the Incorporated Town of Red Bird, Oklahoma:

Section 1. That the town Justice of the Peace shall require a cost bond in all criminal cases for the violation of town ordinances, except where said prosecution is had at the instance of the town.

Sec. 2. The Justice of the Peace shall be liable for accepting worthless bonds for the appearance of persons charged with crime, or to secure the costs or fine.

All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

This ordinance shall be in full force and take effect from and after its passage and approval.

Passed and approved this 20th day of September, 1915.

REV. E. L. BARBER,
I. W. LANE,
N. J. EDWARDS,

(Seal) Trustees.

W. C. B. LEWIS,
Town Clerk.

ORDINANCE NO. 9.

Be It Ordained by the Trustees of the Incorporated Town of Red Bird, Oklahoma:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any peddler of any kind whatsoever to exhibit, or offer for sale within the incorporated limits of said town any goods, wares or merchandise of whatever nature without first obtaining permission from the town Trustees and paying to the Town Treasurer a license fee in the sum of $1.00 to $3.00. A receipt for said license duly signed by said Town Treasurer shall operate and be construed as the written consent of said Trustees.

Sec. 2. No shows, merry-go-rounds, and like entertainments given by persons other than residents of the Town of Red Bird, shall be allowed in the incorporated limits of said town for the purpose of giving an entertainment or exhibition unless a license shall first be procured from the town clerk at a cost of from $1.00 to $5.00.

Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined in a sum not to exceed $25.00, or sentenced not to exceed thirty days in jail, or both, in the discretion of the court.

All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

This ordinance shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage and approval.

1915.

REV. E. L. BARBER,
I. W. LANE, N. J. EDWARDS,

(Seal) Trustees.

W. C. B. LEWIS,
Town Clerk.